The Bullet

Of the assassin may be more sudden, but is not more sure than the dire punishment meted out to the man who abuses his strength. No man is stronger than his stomach. When the stomach is diseased the whole body is weakened.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures diseases of the stomach, on which the several organs depend for nutrition and vitality.

It would not be in regard to your medicines that I have been greatly benefited by them, but in the fact that I have been able to eat and sleep and live again. I have been able to eat and sleep and live again. I have been able to eat and sleep and live again.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. It would not be in regard to your medicines that I have been greatly benefited by them, but in the fact that I have been able to eat and sleep and live again.

HISTORY COMMITTEE.

The report of the History Committee of the Grand Camp, C. V., was made at Staunton last week by Judge George L. Christian, who succeeded Dr. Hunter McGuire as chairman. The report is a very lengthy document.

A touching allusion to the death of Dr. McGuire opens the report, and then Judge Christian follows the suggestion of Dr. McGuire in an exposition of the fact that the South was not the aggressor in the war of 1861-65.

This he does elaborately, quoting from a tin snuff can, and leading by quoting Lincoln to Joseph Medill, of Chicago, to whom Mr. Lincoln said: "Gentlemen, after Boston, Chicago has been the chief instrument in bringing this war on the country. The North was opposed to the South, and New England has opposed the South. It is you who are largely responsible for making blood flow as it has. You called for war until we had it. You called for emancipation and I have given it to you. Whatever you have asked, you have had. Now you come begging to be let off. You ought to be ashamed of yourselves. I have a right to expect better things of you. Go home and raise your 6,000 extra men."

On the subject of school histories he says: "We are gratified to be able to state that the two works adversely criticised in that able paper--V-Z: Fieke's and Cooper, Estil & Lemon's histories, respectively, have, in consequence, found out little favor with the school boards of our States. This is shown by the fact that out of the 118 counties and corporations in the State, but one has adopted Fieke's, and that one has purchased a supply of Jones' History to be used by the pupils in studying the history pertaining to the war. That Cooper, Estil and Lemon's History is now only used in six places, whilst all the other counties and corporations (with the exception of one, which uses Hamilton's) use either Mrs. Lee's or Dr. Jones' histories, or the two conjointly."

The report closes with a plea against expressions, which it says are often heard from children of Confederates, such as, "We are glad the South did not succeed in her struggle for independence; we are glad that slavery is abolished," etc.

In speaking of slavery the report says: "Whilst we know of no one in the South who does not rejoice that this has been accomplished, we know of no one anywhere so lost to every sense of right and justice as not to condemn the iniquitous way in which this was done. But we feel confident that no matter how the war had ended it would have resulted in the freedom of the slave, and as surely with the success of the South as with that of the North, although perhaps not so promptly."

PURITY AND INTEGRITY OF THE FAMILY.—In a sermon in Richmond on Sunday Rev. Palmett Anderson, coadjutor bishop of Chicago, indorsed Mr. Thomas Nelson Page's denunciation of some of the Newport fashionable set. The address was delivered at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the most fashionable one in the city. The occasion was the annual sermon before the members of the National Brotherhood of St. Andrew, whose sessions closed last night. "Brothers," said Bishop Anderson, "I beg you to stand firm and true always for the purity and integrity of the family in the separate spheres of your work. In these days of villainous marriage laws and divorces in the so-called high society, in these days when the heroines in novels are made justified violators of the Seventh commandment—in these days, brothers, I beg you to stand for the upholding of the high and the pure in the family and the keeping of it from degrading influences."

"I am happy to say these words in this city, which has been recently described by St. Andrew's Cross as a city of happy homes; in this State, which is described as the place of happy homes; in this part of the world, which has given us one of our very best American writers, a writer whose book can be found in every home."

After the sermon Bishop Anderson said that he referred to Thomas Nelson Page's reply to the Newport ministers who declare that the eyes of the people of this country were on the fashionable set of that place.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Bochee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. Recommend many years ago by all druggists in the world. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M. Lennon, Warfield & Hall, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.

James Reed Injured. Mr. James Reed struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whisky in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought about a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Cay Court House, W. Va. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by all druggists.

It is well to know that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Ointment will heal a burn and stop the pain at once. It will cure eczema and skin diseases and ugly wounds and sores. It is a certain cure for piles. Consultants may be offered you. See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel.
